

Sms-LdP

Walaa frასas ke oni yusi oftem in sms (kurte telefon mesajos).

Komo yu sta?
Me sta hao. E yu?
Me sta buhao.
Me sta bu tro hao.
Wo yu es?
Me es she me (Me es in dom)
Me es she gunsa.
Me es she amigo.
Me es in metroo.
Me zai weiti yu.
Foni a me nau!
Foni a may dom!
Foni a may mobilika!
Ob lu es she yu?
Ya.
Non.
Wan yu lai?
Yu lai-bu-lai?
Taim yok.
Me bu lai.
Me mangi tudey.
Me lai sunem.
Me lai klok fif.
Me zai lai.
Me lai afte dwa ora.
Me lai tardem.
Kupi pan!
Yu kupi-te pan ku?
Gai kupi pan ku?
Bu gai.
Pan haishi ye.
Mani yok.
Wan yu arivi?
Me haishi bu jan.
Wan yu departi?
Me departi sunem.
Nu hev mitia tudey aksham.
Lai ba!
Danke, me lai.
Danke, me bu mog lai.
Danke, amigo.
Nu bu vidi mutu longtaim.
Es taim tu miti.
Es gro-taim tu miti.
Yu mangi-bu-mangi manya?
Me bu mangi manya.

How are you?
I am fine. And you?
Bad.
Not too good.
Where are you?
I am at mine (I am at home).
I am at work.
I am at my friend's.
I am in subway.
I am waiting for you.
Call me now!
Call to my home.
Call to my mobile phone!
Is he at yours?
Yes.
No.
When are you coming?
Are you coming (or not)?
No time.
I won't come.
I am busy today.
I am coming soon.
I shall come at 5.
I am coming.
I shall come in two hours.
I shall come late.
Buy bread!
Have you bought bread?
Should one buy bread?
One should not.
We have some bread yet.
I have no money.
When do you arrive?
I don't know yet.
When do you leave?
I am leaving soon.
We have a meeting tonight.
Come!
Thank you, I'll come.
Thank you, I can not come.
Thank you, my friend.
We have not seen each other for a long time.
It is time to meet.
It is high time to meet.
Are you busy tomorrow?
I am not busy tomorrow.

Nu miti ba manya.
Shwo namastee a oli!
Hao fortuna!
Swasti!

Me lubi yu.

Let us meet tomorrow.
Say hello to everybody!
Good luck!
All the very best! Good luck! May God help you!
I love you.

Walaa syao kolektia de LdP-skribi-ney telefon mesajos de pluri jen.

— Privet! Komo yu sta?
— Privet-ki! Me sta hao. Telefon mani shao! Me ve skribi a yu e-leta.
— Hao. Swasti!

— Hi! How are you?
— Hi! I am fine. I'm running out of phone money! I shall write an e-letter to you.
— OK. All the best!

— Hey, wo es yu? Yu lai-bu-lai?
— Me ve bi she yu afte shi minuta.
— Zai weiti.

— Hey, where are you? Are you coming?
— I'll be at yours in 10 minutes.
— I am waiting.

— Swasti! Ob yu mog sendi a me nove lexikon?
— Hao, bat nur manya. Me gro-mangi tudey.

— Hi! Can you send me the new dictionary?
— OK, but only tomorrow. I am extremely busy today.

— Me he jawabi a oli yuy leta. Di un parta de lernikurso es tayare.
— Bravo! Ob yu he sendi da a me?
— Ya, kun kelke proposia om gramatika.

— I have answered to all your letters. The first part of the learning course is ready.
— Bravo! Have you sent it to me?
— Yes, along with some propositions about grammar.

— Gro-hao, me kan manya. Swasti-ki!

— Excellent, I'll take a look tomorrow. Good luck to you!

— Komo yu sta? Me zai raki tren, bu ye nihsa tu zwo. Meteo es nilklare, pluvi-ki yen periodos.
Tra winda oni vidi sinfine shulin kel lopi bak.
Rare povre bildura. Triste vidia.

— How are you? I am in the train, I have nothing to do. The weather is dull, it drizzles from time to time. Through the window I can see the endless forest running back. Rare poor buildings. A sad view.

— Me yus he safari on bot sirkum Neva. Zai go a dom, pluvi gro, gro. Gro-pluviagron!

— I have just had a boat-trip around Neva. Now
I am going home, it's a heavy rainfall, it rains cats and dogs!

— Es pitia ke sin me, me toshi yao bot-safari.
Nexte ves nu safari tuhun, hao ku?

— It's a pity that without me, I'd also like to have a boat-trip. Next time we'll take it together, OK?

— Hao. Me esperi ke dan meteo ve bi meno pluvishil. Akwa es kadalok, in may butas toshi.
Sirkum ye oseau. Me vidi tal pluvia yen di un ves!

— OK. I hope that then the weather will be less rainy. The water is everywhere, also in may boots. It's an ocean around. I see such a rain for the first time!

— Kway, kway a dom-ki! Yu hev pluviashirma ku?

— Ya, bat se bu helpi. Me es ga mokre. Sunem me ve mus swimi.

— Swimi ba kway! In dom pi ba garme chay tuy ke yu lai, se helpi fo mah swa warme.

— Me es in dom. Me es gro-mokre.

— E me zai lai a may janmiurba. Walaa da.

Turan — surya! Da brili nichen, sub badal. Sta hao. Swasti!

— Zai pi chay. Swasti!

— Home, quickly home! Do you have an umbrella?

— Yes, but it doesn't help. I am completely wet. Soon I'll have to swim.

— Swim quickly! When you are home, drink hot tea immediately, it helps to get warm.

— I am home. I am wet to the bones.

— And I am arriving in my native town. Here it is. Suddenly — the sun! It shines below, beneath clouds. Feels good. All the very best to you!

— I am drinking tea. All the best!